RACING OUTLOOK BRIGHTER. IWORKING FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE MOPRIS PARK MEETING.

BORSES READY TO RUN WELL ON THE FIRST DAY

SOME COMPARISONS WITH ENGLAND. The racing season of 1806 begins under far more The racing season of 1805 begins under far more favorable auspices than-last year. The courts and the Legislature have definitely decided in favor of wholesome, honest racing, conducted under the auspices of the Jockey Club. The State Racing Commission has done much toward improving the position of racing in the eyes of the public.

Everybody appears to be working for the success of the Morris Park meeting except some of the "cinch"-loving trainers who have obtained licenses from the Jockey Club. There should be no lack of entries for the Morris Park races. At the tracks the horses are sufficiently advanced in their training to be fit and randy to run available to the contract of the contra ing to be fit and ready to run excellent races on the first day of the meeting.

It is a pity that the racing season in this neighborhood does not open with a great handicap, which would arouse public enthusiasm at the outset, instead of beginning with cheap racing at the Aque-duct track. In England the Lincoinshire Handicap is talked about for weeks before the race. There is much betting on the result, and it furnishes fuel for much betting on the result, and it furnishes fuel for discussion until the last of the great spring handi-caps has been decided. Then there is the Grand National Steeplechase, run at Aintree, near Liver-pool, to aid in keeping up the interest in racing. What is the use in comparing American racing with the English? Every condition is different. Certain Americans who collect exorbitant rents for dismal, Americans who collect exorbitant rents for dismai, stuffy flats and apartments, and who rail at the high prices in this country, when compared with the cheap living abroad, pay $10 to $20 to witness a single day's sport in England, and kick like steers when asked to pay $5 to see just as good sport at Sheepshead Bay or Morris Park.

There should be no halfway measures taken to

There should be no halfway measures taken to insure a splendid success on the opening day at Morris Park. Governor Morton and his staff, rebe invited to be present. Mayor Strong, Theodore Roosevelt and Colonel Waring might assist in giv-ing the sport a boom on the opening day. Thomas C. Platt, however, should remain at home, as some of the horses would surely bolt if he were present with the foregoing distinguished company. A comshould be appointed to inspect the roads to mittee should be appointed to inspect the roads to Morris Park and to inform the authorities about the dangerous places and rought spats in the thoroughtares leading to the park.

It is singular that the men who talk the most about exclusiveness in seeing squase are the men who were the infinate associates of the duttenburg element. Covert attacks, without names being mentioned, upon any turfinen who are members of the Jockey Club are not at all likely to aid the cause of racing. Ingrates are at a discount on the turf as well as in all other places. There should be no friction aroused on the turf if success is desired. The Jockey Club should act fearlessly and premptly in every case where suspicious circumstances occur in races. Traihers and jockeys who are under suspicion should be cautioned before active racing begins. Measures should be taken to ascertain who the go-betweens are that corrupt jockeys and admission should be refused to the suspects at the gates.

The Keene horses have all been through a course gates.

The Keene horses have all been through a course of physic and are now ready for their final preparation. William Lakeland is satisfied with the work of his handicap candidates. Hornpipe, King Arthur II and Counter Tenor are in superb condition. The Stockwell Stable's two-year-olds are well forward in their training, and Arthur White is correspondingly happy.

in their training, and Arthur White is correspondingly happy.
Cheering reports come from Brookdale, Holmdel and other training grounds in Monmouth County.
The epidemic of pinkeye has run its course, and the horses afflicted are rapidly recovering from the effects of the disease.
There has been some lively betting on the Brooklyn Handicap. Belmar, who won several consecutive handicaps at Morris Fark last fall, was heavily supported last week. King Arthur II is now at 6 to I in the betting.
Handspring's work at the Gravesend track last week did not please some of the critics who were present.

OPENING OF THE FASIG HORSE SALE. NO HIGH PRICES REALIZED-A BETTER LOT OF TROTTERS TO BE SOLD TO-DAY.

The Fasig sale of trotting stock, which is to conighout the week at Madison Square Gar den, began yesterday afternoon, with a fair attendance of horsemen present. No high prices were realized, as the animals offered were for the most part odds and ends from small corsignors, which falled to meet the exacting demands of the New-York market. About thirty head passed under the hammer, at an average considerably below $200 each.

The highest price of the day was only $100, two horses selling for this sum. One of them was the gray gelding Bill Lindsay, 2:17%, by Vasco, a good campaigner in his day. He is said to have trotted a mile in his work at Lexington, Ky., in 2:12%, two or three years ago. Horsemen were apparently of the opinion that he could not do it now, for John Fritz got the gelding by a bid of $409. Richard B., a sixyear-old brown geiding, by Ethorne, 2:121/2, knocked down to T. R. Palmer at the same figure. E. S. Wells, of Jersey City, bought the pacing mare Chipeta, 2:25% by Hambletonian Messenger, for $800. Dr. Yale paid a like sum for Van Buren Boy, a handsome bay pacer, with a record of 2:25¼, by Park's Volunteer. The black mare Molly Bawn Park's Volunteer. The black mare Molly Bawn, 2:37½, by Stridaway, fr., went to C. H. Brown, Bound Brook, N. J., for $350. Seller, E. R. Lowry, Chief as auctioneer. Lowry can talk faster than Robert J. can pace, and his witty sayings kept the crowd in a merry mood yesterday. In the evening an exhibition of the Railey saddle horses and the leading trotters and pacers to be sold this week took place, a large crowd viewing the horses from the arena boxes and seats. Among the animals shown were C. J. Hamilin's pair of, 2:19 pacers, Merry Chimes, 2:08½, and Moonstone, 2:29; the famous trotters Ryland T. 2:07¾, and Magnolia, 2:09¾, and many others having fast records. The Hamilin consignment will open the sale proper today, Moonstone beling the first animal in the list to be sold. The Railey saddle horses are to be sold togight.

MR. ALEXANDRE'S NEW TROTTING TEAM. Through Edward De Cernea, John E. Alexandre, of this city, has purchased from Charles S. Green, of New-Hartford, N. Y., the noted trotting mare Ora, 2:16%, by Sprague Golddust, 2:15%, out of Mamie, 2:21%, by Wilson's Biue Bull. Ora is one of the handsomest mares in the fast list, and she was a big winner when campaigned by Green in 1883 and 1894. Mr. Alexandre, who is a member of the Suburhan Riding and Driving Club and a well-known road rider, will drive the beautiful little brown mare in double harness with Belie Pagan, 2:244. The latter is a brown mare by Pagan, the son of Wedgewood, 2:19, out of Essie Vacher, by Vacher. She was purchased by De Cernea for Mr. Alexandre after the close of the last campaign.

W. H. MEEK DEAD.

W. H. Meek, who was an athlete of some prominence a few years ago, died at Denver from con-sumption on Saturday. Meek was about thirty years old, and before his illness was employed at Btation O of the Postoffice in this effy.

Mr. Meek was formerly a member of the West Bide Athletic Club, and was one of the organizers of the Columbia Athletic Club. He was an active athlete from 1878 up to about two years ago. He won the seven-mile walking championship in England in 1884. His time for the race was 54 minutes and 7 seconds. His time for four miles, for which he held the record until his death, was 29 minutes and 10 seconds. This record also was made in England.

WATSON NO LONGER HARVARD'S COACH. Cambridge, Mass., April 27 (Special).-The rumor longer was verified by a member of the Athleti committee to-day. When approached on the subject he would say nothing except "that is a good guess for you to publish." Since Watson returned from England he has not seen the crew more than twice, and he did no coaching even then. Mumford and Faulkner will have full charge of the crew from now until the big race.

LIGHT FIELD AT BENNINGS.

HENRY OF NAVARRE TAKES AN EXERCISE GAL-LOP AND EXCITES GREAT ENTHUSIASM -THE WINNERS.

Washington, April 27.-The eighth day at Bennings was, in point of attendance, not exactly up to Saturday's measure, but for that, in all probability, the raw and disagreeable weather was in part responsible. The field presented was light, aggregating altogether only eighteen entries, and of these the Nellson filly, Contribution, was scratched from the first and Bennett's Bicycle Girl from the sec-ond race, thus lessening to a slight degree the interest in the sport. Deggett was the favored jockey of the day. He had the good fortune of riding the winners in the first three races, and was the moun of the second horse in the fourth. The appearance on the track between the third and fourth races of the Blemton Stable's chestnut horse Henry of Navarre was an oasis in the desert of leading lights of the turf thus far presented, and as he cantered of the turf thus far presented, and as a cannot to the post for a gallop through the stretch, ridden by Henry Griffin, his almost matchless beauty evoked a round of enthusiastic applause, and he was eagerly watched from every point in a graceful galthat broke into an exhibition dash in the las

In the mile race the Clark starter was utilized for the second time during the meeting. It worked well. Prig took the lead in this race, opening considerable space ahead of the next horse, Golden siderable space ahead of the next norse, Goiden Gate, and at the end McCabe's entry came in six lengths at least before the second horse. The stake event of the day was the selling hurdle race over seven flights of hurdles, for which there were four contestants, including Klikenny, who was scratched on Saturday and, whose rider was a gentleman jockey. It was pretty and spiced with the excitement of a tumble. Hlawasse, who stood four to one, ridden by Mora, lost his balance at the last hurdle and went down, but struggled up again and ambled a carrie without a ridge after the finish. Mora was Philadelphia, Apri: 27.—Brooklyn defeated Philadelph'a to-day by bunching their hits in the last three innings of the game. Up to the seventh inning Tayfor had the visitors well in hand, they securing only two singles. In the seventh, however, McCarthy and Lachance made triples and Shindle rapped out a single, two earned runs being the result.

Brooklyn made it three better in the eighth, Jones, who batted in place of Abbey, being hit by a pitched ball and Griffin, Anderson and Lachance securing singles. Daly, who got a base on balls, scored the sing.es. Daily, who got a base to ball.

BOSTON TAKES ANOTHER GAME.

NEW-YORK MAKES MORE ERRORS THAN BASE-HITS AND LOSES IN THE LAST TWO INNINGS.

If it was not for the floating population, for which this town is famous, the present rulners of baseball in this city might as well shut up shop or start some other kind of circus at the Polo Grounds. It is certain that few people who live in this city have any idea of going to Harlem give an exhibition of how not to play baseball Meekin pitched yesterday, and while he did as Meekin pitched yesterday, and while he did as well as could be expected with the conditions as they are, he was unable to accomplish anything. Then, again, his support was of the most ragged sort. There was a semblance of a contest for a few innings, and then the usual defeat, it is rumored that Rusle, seeing that he will have nothing to do with the local management, will be sold or traded. With Doyle and Rusle out of the team, the club has still one first-class player left, Davis, so those clubs wishing to purchase a really clever player should send in their bids at once. Here is the score of the same yesterday, the Boston team winning, of course:

Within the last two weeks K L Coleman, president of the Cycle Board of Trade, has organized an information bureau, which is intended to bring about united action wherever the interests of the trade are concerned, embody-ing among its objects financial reports, enforce-ment of collections, investigation of failures, information to new firms, changes or dissolutions, names of :eputable agents, and other items of value to the members. Although the information bureau has been so recently organized, it has met with the hearty support and indorsement of many of the leading members of the Board of Trade, and it is apparer sy destined to grow into one of the it is apparerally destined to grow into one of the most important branches of the National Board. Mr. Colemen is in receipt of many letters congratulating him upon the organization of this bureau, and assuring him of the hearty co-operation of the members. There is every reason to believe that, in a short time, every reputable manufacturer in the country will ally himself with the National Board and avail himself of the privileges of this new department.

BILLS APPROVED BY THE MAYOR.

Mayor Strong approved yesterday the following bills: One authorizing the appointment of 800 addi-tional pairo men on the police force, another au-thorizing the New East River Bridge Commission to build the new bridge, acquire lands and begin condemnation proceedings with the same powers as he trustees of the Brooklyn Bridge; a third aution $5,000,000 312 per cent schoolhouse bonds for a term not exceeding fifty years, and a fourth amendterm not exceeding fifty years, and a fourth amending the Fire Department pension law so that henceforth the widows and children of firemen who die while in the service, but not as the result of injuries, shall be entitled to a pension of $300.

When firemen die as the result of injuries sustained while in service, their widows or children will be entilled to half-pay, provided it shall not exceed $1,00 a year. Children shall benefit in the first instance until they are sixteen years old, and in the second until they are eighteen years old, if they do not marry before. When the widow remarries the pension in both cases ceases.

THE TROUBLE AT LITTLE & CO.'S.

In relation to the strike of the printers, pressmen electrotypers and bookbinders at J. J. Little & Co.'s publishing house, in Astor Place, Mr. Little made the following statement yesterday:

the following statement yesterday:

The compositors demanded that their hours be nine a day instead of ten as heretofore. This is the most important request. There are, however, several others. They demand that no books or magazines in future be set partiy on piece and partly on time. The advertisements are set by job men and the text work is done by piecework. Their proposition is to have it all set by time or piece. Another request is to have what they term "blood money" allowed for illustrations, even though the cuts are not in the office when the work is done. The "blood money" is time for these cuts. They also want to make this a cerd office. That means employ none but members of their union.

None of their propositions can or will be entertained. Trade is too dull; there are too many out-of-town publishers and the competition is too keen.

Mr. Little continued by saying that it would not

MISS TRAUBMANN NEED NOT PAY Miss Sophie Traubmann, of the Metropolit

Opera Company, appeared vesterday before Justice Lynn, in the First District Court, as defendant in a suit brought against her by Leon Marguelles to re cover $0 for services rendered to her. Julius Lobmann appeared for the plaintiff, and Miss Traubmann was accompanied by her counsel, R. Lewin Marguelles averred that he had been employed to "boom" the prima donna. He testified yesterday that before Miss Traubmann came to this country from Europe he was employed by her father, Mauritz Traubmann, to act as her manager and to "boom her in the newspapers." The plaintiff testified that the defendant's father told him he could have the right to "boom" her, and would be compensated for his services. The plaintiff said that he considered his services worth at least $100. Miss Traubmann said that she had not employed Marguelles or authorized her father to do so.

Judgment was given for the defendant. Bicpcles.

AN IMPORTANT OPINION BY A UNITED STATES JUDGE. THE CLAIMS OF THE GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED-

A CASE INVOLVING MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

In the first of a series of suits instituted by the United States against the North American Commerroyalty for seals taken and a revenue tax of $2 for each skin, Judge Wallace, of the United States Circuit Court, yesterday handed down his decision. The suit in point was for $134,000 for the year ending April 1, 1894, but the decision covers many other suits, and, under the contract between the Government and the company, involves several millions of the $7.62 bonus for each skin.

In the year 1893, however, according to the decision, the Government was guilty of breach of contract in arbitrarily reducing the number of seals to be taken, as at that time the modus vivendi in connection with the Behring Sea controversy be-tween the United States and England was pending and was hampering the operations of the company. But, as the company took the seals in spite of the breach of contract, Judge Wallace holds that it must pay the United States a lump sum of $94,687 50 for that year. At the same time, he decides, the United States is liable to suit in the Court of Claims by the company for $140,000 by reason of the breach of contract in 1893.

ending April 1, 1886, and April 1, 1896, the company must pay the full rent of $00,000 a year, together with the $2 tax and the $7 62 bonus for each sealskin, without regard to any reduction in the seal catch which may be ordered by the Secretary of the Treasury. The amount the company is thus required to pay for the two years last mentioned will amount to about $400,000, but as the decision has equal bearing and effect upon the subsequent 1910, the amount of money involved is very large, 1910, the amount of money involved is very large, for, even if no seals were caught, the rent alone would amount to nearly $1,000,000, to which must be added the tax and bonus for every skin.

The suit in which the present decision is rendered was begun by United States District-Attorney Macfarlane several months ago. James C. Carter and other well-known lawyers appeared for the North American Commercial Company.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO. Chicago, April 27 (Special).-Wheat sold down to "put" price to-day, and closed there. The range was not very wide—Se. July opened at 64%c, sold between 64%c and wide—Sc. July opened at 64%c, sold between 64%c and 64c, and closed at 64%c. There was a stream of May liquidation all day, resulting in a little widening of the May-July difference. It was 1% 61%c most of the seasion. The statistics counted against the price from the outset. There was a very large increase in the Black Sea shipments, making the total of the world's shipments 7.43s, 000 bush. There was an increase on passage—1.240,000 bush. The decrease in the visible—337,000 bush—was about half as much as expected, and looked exceedingly small compared with the 3,000,000 bush decrease last year. The only help the market got was from the Northwest. There were rains in North Dakota, and showers were predicted agair for Tuesday. Up to noon Minnespolis and Duluth held remarkably steady. This strength up there, together with local buying against "puts," brought about frequent little rallies here. Seaboard clearances were light, only 133,000 bush from all ports. Minneapolis and Duluth had 500 cars, against 471 last week and 513 last year.
